Corporate News

Marinomed Biotech AG, a globally operating biopharmaceutical company based in Vienna, has announced that Karl Lankmayr will resign from his post as a member of the supervisory board on 31 October 2020. The company plans to appoint his successor at the next AGM.

Simon Nebel, chair of the supervisory board at Marinomed, commented on Mr Lankmayr's departure: "On behalf of the supervisory board, I would like to thank Karl Lankmayr for the substantial contribution he has made during his tenure. Thanks to his excellent expertise and wealth of experience in growth capital and pre-IPO finance, he has supported Marinomed AG every step of the way during an important phase in its development. Marinomed is now in a solid position for future growth owing also to his invaluable input."

About Marinomed Biotech AG

Marinomed Biotech AG is a biopharmaceutical company with headquarters in Vienna and has been listed in the Prime Market of the Vienna Stock Exchange. The company focuses on the development of innovative products based on patent-protected technology platforms. The Marinosolv® technology platform increases the efficacy of hardly soluble compounds for the treatment of sensitive tissues such as eyes, nose, lung or gastrointestinal tract. The Carragelose® platform comprises innovative patent-protected products targeting viral infections of the respiratory tract and can reduce the risk of an infection with SARS-CoV-2. Carragelose® is used in nasal sprays, throat sprays and lozenges, which are sold via international partners in over 30 countries worldwide.
